

My name is Max and I am the Director of Pet Relations. I'm excited that your people have booked "Max's Wagaway" package at the hotel. Our HosPetality includes organic treats, a brand new chew toy for your enjoyment, waste bags for cleaning up, and your food and water bowls.

Max's Bio:

Title: Director of Pet Relations

Breed: Bishon

Age: 7

Likes: Playing in the dirt

Dislikes: Men in uniforms – Max wants everyone in play mode

Hobbies: Chasing chipmunks, road trips and playing tug-of-war

Favorite Food: Whatever his people are eating

You'll find Max working the concierge's desk giving tail wagers tips on great pet friendly locations in and around Hawley.

Max's Travel Tips:

- Pet ID Collar
- Trim nails: this avoids damage to surroundings and people
- No Fleas please: bathe before the trip
- Pet must be crated when left alone in the room
- Obey all leash rules
- Clean-up after your pet
- First Aid: pack a pet first-aid kit including any medications, current shot status and phone number for your veterinarian

Max's Favorite Walking/Hiking Trails:

- Downtown Hawley – take the River Trail – practically out our door. Walk around town and visit Bingham Park
- Promised Land State Park – a short drive from the hotel. State park leash rules – all pets must be leashed and the leash cannot exceed 6 feet.

If your people get a minute – ask them to send us your bio!
